The idea behind your job is to help the group build bonds, so that you can grow toward God together and that outsiders will see your love and praise God (John 17:20-23). Some practical ways to do that are:

- Follow-Up: Contact all new visitors to the group and anyone who indicates interest through surveys and sign-ups. Calling is best, then texting and email. Click here for email, text and phone scripts.

- Publicity:
  1. Evan*d*elism: Write the club's name and events and/or EveryStudent.com on top-right corner of blackboards in classrooms
  2. Postering: Get permission to hang posters. Find out from faculty advisor or student activities. They are our friends
  3. Get a great Facebook group going and post all events. Be sure to invite everybody you meet. You are the welcome committee

- Plan Fun Events:
  1. Campus Crossover: Do something with the CCC group at another campus nearby. This will be a boost for both groups.
  2. JTrip: Carpool to JCru, "road trip!" and eat out. Bring a game in case the car conversation starts slow.

- Promo CCC Events: Generate excitement and plan carpooling for
  1. Monthly – Jersey Cru (Rutgers)
  2. October – Fall Retreat (Long Beach Island)
  3. December – Radiate (Baltimore)
  4. March – Big Break (Florida)
  5. Summer – Summer Projects (US and International)

- Weekly Icebreakers:
  1. Short silly games or full game nights that help people get to know each other
  2. Use Soularium to ask what people's week was like

- Social Justice: Enable members to share God's love with the poor in their community. Talk to your Student Government Association (SGA) and work together with other clubs

- Additional Ideas: See the "Elements Sheet" found on the right-hand menu of JerseyMetro.com/Resources, Search "Community" on CruPressGreen.com or check out the book, The Kingdom of Couches.
